PLAYING THE GAME

In Blackjack Switch[®] each player plays two hands of Blackjack. The player can choose to switch the second card of each hand. The player can also make the optional Super Match bet which is based on their first 4 cards.

/GETTING STARTED

Players make equal bets on both betting spots, and the optional Super Match wager. The dealer then deals out two hands of Blackjack to every player and one to himself. The dealer will now resolve all Super Match wagers (see pay-table below).

After seeing their two Blackjack starting hands, players have a choice to switch the second card of each hand. Then each hand is played according to the normal house rules of Blackjack. All doubling and splitting is allowed as in regular Blackjack. Player's Blackjacks pay even money and push against dealer's Blackjack. A switched Blackjack (considered a 21) loses against a dealer blackjack and pushes against a dealer 21 or 22. Dealer Hits Soft 17. Dealer total of 22 will push all non-bust player hands except player's Blackjack. Super Match wager is paid according to posted pay-table.
